Brief History

Marguerite (1896-1958) and Geraldine McKeon (1898-1975) were both born in Mitchell, Ontario, Canada.

Marguerite McKeon (Zinn) was an active member of the International Women's Union Label League in Chicago; served as president of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) Local Union 78-A; and worked as a telephone operator. She later married John Zinn in 1929, who died in 1939. She worked at the Paradise Cleaners for 15 years, and lived at a nursing home in El Paso, IL up until her death.

Geraldine McKeon worked as a telephone operator for 48 years (1914-1963). She served as a president of Local Union 78-A. She was president of the Women's Union Label League No. 341 and served as League delegate to Bloomington Trades and Labor Assembly until her death. She was also a member of the Degree of Maud Miller. (The fraternal order known as the Improved Order of Red Men had a female branch named the "Degree of Pocahontas," and the local Bloomington order was titled the "Degree of Maud Miller.")

The Kinloch Telephone Company in Bloomington was renamed Wabash Telephone Company and then later became the Illinois Telephone Company. Geraldine worked for all three. Many telephone operators were members of the Local Union 78-A, later part of Local Union No. 51, both local affiliations of the IBEW. Geraldine was a trustee for local telephone operator's union to the Bloomington Trades and Labor Assembly. The Trades and Labor Assembly was the Bloomington-Normal affiliate of the American Federation of Labor.

Scope

The collection includes Marguerite's and Geraldine's personal correspondence from friends and family, many in Canada. Women's Trade Union League, Bloomington Trades and Labor Assembly, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers telephone operators, Women's Union Label League, and Improved Order of the Redman local and national publications, Constitutions/By-laws, union correspondence, and newspaper articles. There are several Wabash/Kinloch/ Illinois Telephone Company employee booklets and collective bargaining agreements. There is a folder on Hugh McKeon with immigration letters and railroad certification and news articles.
